FIVE.- Authorisation to acquire own shares, directly or through Group companies.

1. After nullifying the unused part of the authorisation to acquire own shares, conferred under point four of the agenda of the General Shareholders Meeting held on 27 June 2013, to authorise, pursuant to the provisions of applicable regulations, a derivative acquisition, at any time and as often as deemed appropriate, by Codere, S.A., either directly or through any subsidiaries of which the latter is the controlling company, of fully disbursed own shares, under a sale and purchase or any other legal title for consideration.

The minimum purchase price or consideration will be the face value of the own shares acquired and the maximum will be the result of increasing by 20% the listed value of the stock on the purchase date.

This authorisation is granted for a five-year term, as of the date this Meeting is held, and is expressly subject to a limitation, consisting of the face value of own shares acquired further to this authorisation, when added to the value of those already held by Codere, S.A. and any of its subsidiaries, never exceeding the maximum permitted by the Act at all times.

It is expressly stated for the record that this authorisation may be used in whole or in part to acquire own shares in order to be delivered or transferred to company workers or directors, directly or as a consequence of exercising any stock option rights held by the same.

2. To empower the Board of Directors, in the broadest terms, in order to execute the authorisation covered by this resolution and to carry out the other provisions contained therein; such powers may be delegated by the Board of Directors to any Director, to the Secretary or Vice-Secretary of the Board of Directors, or to any other person expressly empowered by the Board of Directors for this purpose.

SIX.- Authorisation to the Board of Directors, for a maximum term of five years, to issue ordinary bonds, debentures, promissory notes and other securities that recognize or create debt, as well as preference shares and other equivalent instruments, and guarantee those issuances by Companies of Group Codere, and apply for their admission to trading.

To delegate to the Board of Directors, as permitted by section 319 of the Regulations of the Mercantile Registry and the general provisions governing the issuance of debentures, the power to issue negotiable securities in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

1. Securities contemplated in this delegation may be simple bonds or debentures, notes, promissory notes and other securities that recognize or create debt, as well as preference shares and other equivalent instruments.
2. The issuance of the securities covered by the delegation may be effected on one or more occasions, within a maximum period of five years following the date of approval of this resolution.
3. The maximum nominal amount of the issuance or issuances of securities approved under this delegation shall be one billion euros (€1,000,000,000) or its equivalent in another currency.
4. The delegation shall be extended, as broadly as required by law:

(i) to the establishment of the different terms and conditions applicable to each issue, including at least par value (respecting the limits that may apply), through simple bonds or debentures, notes, promissory notes and other securities that recognize or create debt as well as preference shares and other equivalent instruments, issue price, place for the issuance, domestic or foreign currency, issue price, interest rate or type of compensation, proceedings and payment of the coupons or compensation, time and form of amortisation and expiration date, or, the perpetual nature of the securities, subordination clauses, guarantees supporting the issuance, applicable regulations, form of representation of the securities, either by certificates or book entries or any other form allowed by the law, the admission to trading and in general any other condition of the issuance (including its later amendment); and

(ii) to conduct any and all formalities that may be necessary, including regulations of the stock Exchange market, for the implementation of the specific issues approved under this delegation.

5. The Board of Directors shall also be authorized to guarantee on behalf of the Company, and as it deems appropriate, the issuance of the securities above-mentioned in paragraph 1 by subsidiaries of its Group, and within the limits set forth in paragraph 3. This authorization must be understood as additional to those issuance of securities executed by the subsidiaries of the Group “Codere Finance (Luxembourg) 2. S.A.R.L. and Codere Newco S.A.U. and guaranteed by Codere S.A. and other companies of Group Codere, for an amount of €500 million and US$300 million.

6. The Board of Directors is authorized to make application for trading of the securities in official or non-official secondary markets, organized or otherwise, domestic or foreign, of the securities issued under this delegation, empowering the Board, with the power to substitute, to execute all the acts and formalities that may be required for admission to listing with the various Spanish or foreign securities markets.

It is expressly stated for the record that, if application is subsequently made for delisting of the securities issued under this delegation, it shall be made in compliance with the same formalities as those stated in this section, and in such case, the interests of the debenture holders opposing or not voting on the resolution, in compliance with Spanish Companies Act and other regulations.

7. The Board is expressly authorized to further delegate the powers contemplated in this resolution, to the Board of Directors, and other members of the Board, or any other person that the Board may delegate, with express authority for substitution.

8. This resolution deprives of effect Resolution Five approved by the General Shareholders Meeting held on August 14, 2013 which authorised the Company’s Board of Directors to issue simple bonds or debentures, notes, promissory notes and other securities that recognize or create debt, as well as preference shares and other equivalent instruments.

SEVEN.- Authorisation to the Board of Directors to increase the share capital once or several times in accordance with art. 297.1.b) of the Spanish Companies Act, at any time within a period of 5 years at most, through monetary contributions amounting to a maximum nominal amount of 101,942,960.36 euros (equivalent to 20% of the current share capital), under the terms and conditions it may deem appropriate. Granting the Board the power to exclude the pre-emptive subscription right stated in art. 506 of the Spanish Companies Act.

To authorize the Board of Directors, as broadly as may be required by law, and in accordance to art. 297.1.b) of the Spanish Companies Act, to increase the share capital in one or several times, at any time, within a period of five years since the date in which the General Shareholders Meeting takes place, and up to a maximum amount of 101,942,960.36 euros (equal to 20% of the current share capital), through the issuance of new shares of the same class and series than the current ones or the different classes and series – in each case with or without share premium and with or without voting rights- for monetary contributions, and with the power to establish the terms and conditions of the capital increase and the new shares, and with the power to freely offer the non-subscribed new shares in the term or terms of the pre-emptive subscription right and stating that in the event of incomplete subscription, the capital increase will be made only in the subscribed amount and to amend the wording of the article of the Bylaws on share capital.

Furthermore, the Board is also empowered to waive totally or partially pre-emptive subscription rights subject to the requirements and limits of art. 506 of the Spanish Companies Act. The Board of Directors will be also authorized to (i) request admission on trading of the new shares issued under this resolution and to implement all the measures needed in this respect before the competent bodies of the different securities markets and (ii) to subdelegate in any of the Board of Directors members the powers granted in said decisión, provided that they may be delegated.

EIGHT.- Amendment of art. 16 of the Bylaws.

To amend art. 16 of the Bylaws which shall have the following wording:

“ARTICLE 16.- General Shareholder’s Meetings shall be called by the managing body at least one month in advance of the date on which the Meeting is to be held. The Extraordinary General Shareholders Meeting may be convened with only fifteen days in advance in those cases and complying with the legal requirements.*”

The said notice may also state the date on which, if appropriate, the Shareholders’ Meeting shall assemble on second call. Between the first and second call there must be a period of at least twenty-four hours.

Shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may request the publication of a supplement to the notice of call of the annual ordinary general meeting, including one or more points on the agenda provided that the new items are accompanied by a justification or, where appropriate, a justified proposed resolution. In order to exercise this right, the shareholder or shareholders shall provide due notification sent to the registered offices of the Company within the first 5 days following the publication of the original notification. The complementary notification shall be published no later than 15 days prior to the date established for the meeting to be held.

In addition, shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital may, in the same period indicated in the preceding paragraph, submit justified proposals on matters already included or to be included in the agenda of the meeting being convened, in the terms established by law.

Similarly, Extraordinary General Meetings shall be convened when requested by shareholders representing at least three percent of the share capital, with the request for such a meeting stating the matters to discuss in the Meeting and proceeding in the form specified in the Capital Companies Act.

The provisions of this article shall not apply when the Law establishes different requirements for meetings dealing with specific matters, in which case, such special provisions shall be applicable.

When resolutions are to be adopted affecting several classes of shares, only a part of the shares of the same class, or non-voting shares, the legal requisites established for these cases shall be abided by”.

NINE.- Amendment of art. 10.1 of the Regulations of the General Shareholders Meeting of Codere S.A.

To amend art. 10.1 of the Regulations of the General Shareholders Meeting of Codere, S.A. which shall have the following wording:

“10.1. The Annual General Meeting shall be convened with a minimum of one month prior notice to the date fixed for the meeting, except in cases where the law or the Bylaws establish a different period, by announcement published in at least the following media:
