CODERE, S.A.
Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting

Taking into account the request by Mr. José Antonio Martínez Sampedro, Mr. Luis Javier Martínez Sampedro and Masampe S.A (shareholders of the Company holding more than 3% of the stock capital) in accordance with art. 168 of the Spanish Companies Act, the Company's Board of Directors has resolved to convene an Extraordinary General Shareholders' Meeting, to be held in Alcobendas, at the registered offices located at Avda. De Bruselas 26, 28108 Madrid, on May 17, 2018 at 10:00 on first call, and on May 18, 2018 at 13:00 on second call, in accordance with the following

AGENDA

FIRST.- To dismiss Mr. Joseph Zappala as member of the Board of Directors of the Company.

SECOND.- Delegation of faculties.

REASONED PROPOSALS FOR RESOLUTIONS. In accordance with article 519.3 of the Spanish Corporations Law, shareholders who represent at least three percent of the share capital may file substantiated proposed resolutions regarding topics included or which may be included on the Agenda for the General Meeting. This right may be exercised by attestable notice which must be received at the Company's registered offices, Avda. Bruselas 26, Alcobendas 28108 Madrid, to the attention of the Secretary of the Board of Directors (Mr. Luis Argüello Álvarez), within five days following the publication of this official meeting notice indicating: i) identity of the shareholder exercising the right; ii) number of shares held; iii) an original certificate issued by the corresponding deposit entities, proving the ownership of the shares at the date of this call; iv) whole text of each substantiated proposed resolution regarding topics included or which may be included on the Agenda and v) any other relevant documents.

The Company will publish these proposed resolutions and the documentation attached including them into its website.

RIGHT TO ATTEND AND VOTING: In accordance with article 11 of the bylaws, holders of one hundred shares or more, who have their shares recorded in the pertinent book-entry ledger five days in advance of the meeting being held will have the right to attend . They shall hold the relevant attendance card or similar proof of holdings. Shareholders who do not hold sufficient shares to attend may group them together with those of other shareholders who do not have the right to attend until they reach the required minimum, appointing a representative.

Each share shall give the right to one vote, although in no case may a single shareholder, companies belonging to the same group or persons acting in a concerted manner in conjunction with the foregoing, cast a number of votes at a General Meeting in excess of those corresponding to shares which represent 44% of the share capital, even if the number of shares owned exceeds the aforementioned percentage of the share capital, without prejudice to the provision made in article 527 of the Companies Act.

This restriction does not affect those votes pertaining to the shares for which a shareholder holds a proxy as a consequence of the provision made in article 13 below, although, the restriction established above shall also apply in relation to the number of votes pertaining to the shares of each shareholder represented.

In accordance with legislation and the provisions, where applicable, set out in the Articles of Association, shareholders may exercise their right to vote in relation to the proposals on the matters on the agenda by post, electronic or any other remote means of communication, as long as the identity of the shareholder exercising the right to vote is duly guaranteed. To exercise the vote by post, the shareholders wishing to do so shall send the Company, directly or through the deposit entities, the attendance card duly completed and signed which must be received five days in advance of the meeting being held in first call.

REPRESENTATION: All shareholders with the right to attend may be represented at the General Meeting by another person, even if said person is not a shareholder, using the delegation formula. One shareholder may not be represented by more than one representative at the same General Shareholders Meeting.

Representation shall be granted specifically for each General Shareholders Meeting in writing. Representation shall be revocable under all circumstances, where it shall be considered as revoked by the personal attendance at the meeting of the represented party.

RIGHT TO INFORMATION: Shareholders may request from the Board of Directors, until the fifth day prior to the scheduled date of the General Meeting, or verbally during the meeting, the information or explanations they consider necessary or submit any written questions they deem appropriate on the matters contained in the agenda or on publicly available information that has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Exchange Commission since the conclusion of the last General Meeting.

Shareholders have the right to check at the registered office (Monday through Friday, from 08:00 am to 03:00 pm) all the documents related with the agenda including:

- a) The full text of the notice calling the shareholders' meeting.
- b) The full text of all the proposed resolutions, and the reports of the Board in the required issues.
- c) The total number of shares and voting rights on the date of the call to meeting.
- d) Specimen of the attendance card and delegation and indication of the means and procedures for obtaining said card.
- e) Indication of the means and procedures for appointing a proxy for the General Shareholders Meeting.
- f) Indication of the means and procedures for remote communication.
